Image Attribution Guidance

Where no suitable attribution can be provided, the material should not be used.

General Images

Source	Attribution
Member photograph	"Photograph supplied by [Name]."
Pixabay	"Image sourced from Pixabay under the Pixabay Content License."
Third-party website	"Image reproduced with permission from [Source]."

Promotional Images

For events, promotional images may be used where they have been supplied by, or are clearly intended for use by, organisations promoting the event.

Suggested attributions:

- "Promotional image supplied by the Palace Theatre, Mansfield."
- "Image provided by the event organiser."

Please note that the safest position is that images should either be supplied directly by the rights holder or used with their permission. Where there is any doubt about the origin or permitted use of an image, clarification should be obtained before publication.

AI Content

AI-generated or AI-assisted content may be used in Mansfield & District u3a publications and online media. Contributors remain responsible for ensuring that such content is lawful, accurate, appropriate and does not infringe copyright, trademark or other intellectual property rights.

Where content has been generated primarily by AI, this should be acknowledged where practical. AI-generated images should not be presented as genuine photographs without appropriate disclosure.

Suggested attribution:

- "AI-generated image created by [Name] using [Tool Name]."
- "Photograph by [Name], edited using AI-assisted tools."
